We all are responsible for their maintenance or replacement.

Presanctified Liturgy

A unique experience in the Byzantine Catholic church is to attend and participate in the gift of the Presanctified Liturgy. This is a worship experience unlike anything in the Western Catholic churches. The Presanctified Liturgy is a journey through our relationship with God and his commitment and faithfulness to us.

As the very name suggests, the Eucharistic Gifts given in communion at this service are pre-sanctified; consecrated beforehand. It is traditionally celebrated during the Great Fast on days when the regular liturgy would not be celebrated. Typically, it is celebrated on Wednesdays and Fridays in the early evening.

The liturgy opens with Vespers. Through the lamentation chanting of the psalms, one experiences the darkness that our sinful nature brings upon us and divides man and God. It concludes with an introduction to the "Joyful Light". This symbolizes that our salvation is experienced through the light of Christ.

The liturgy moves to its second part, the Liturgy of the Catechumens. Where one experiences the renewal of our preparation for baptism in ancient prayers using incense and candles with beautiful intonements.

The liturgy moves to the solemn procession of the presanctified gifts through the Great Entrance in silence and incensing. Full prostration before the holy presanctified gifts is often practiced by the faithful. Once Communion is distributed the final dismissal is then intoned. Many churches will also practice the closing prayers singing a beautiful traditional hymn called "Having Suffered" which involve full prostration and a solemn leaving of the church.

The church invites all the faithful to attend at least one Presanctified Liturgy during their Lenten journey. Please see the bulletin announcement for dates and times. It sets and even changes the tone of your Lenten days ahead of you.

Prayer to St Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

The Jesus Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ,
Son of the Living God,
Have mercy on me,
a sinner.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Heavenly King, Comforter, Spirit of Truth, everywhere present and filling all things, Treasury of blessings, and Giver of life, come and dwell within us, cleanse us of all stain, and save our souls, O
Gracious One.
