Glory to Jesus Christ! Glory forever!

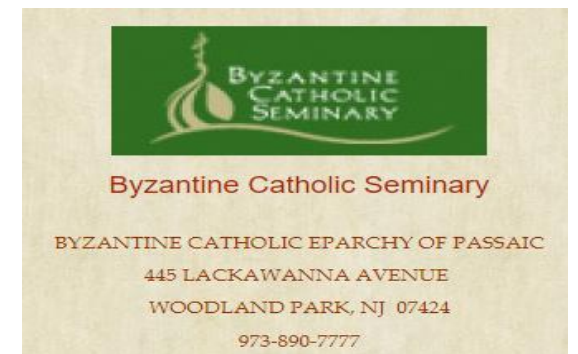

Praying for vocations is a calling that has been asked for as far back as we can remember. But it is needed more than ever now.

Seriously praying for vocations for those who God may be calling to serve in the church may lead you to recognize qualities in people you encounter when you least expect it. When praying for vocations consider praying that God graces those He calls with the wisdom, courage and ability to answer the call. This may be a neighbor, a classmate, a coworker, a family member, or even yourself. Don't be afraid to encourage them to consider the calling you may feel that may be on them. Words of affirmation may include something like this; "You have a lot of good qualities that would work well in the priesthood." Or. "Have you considered using your leadership and charismatic talents to serve the church as a priest?"

Your words may be the one push they were seeking to affirm their own feelings and draw that they may have deep in their heart. The decision to commit one's life to the church is a huge decision and needs a lot of confirmation and support.

Finally, please consider supporting the seminarians and the church's seminary who are leading these men on their journey to the holy priesthood. The archeparchy's website for the seminary is <https://bcs.edu/>. And our eparchy of Passaic website is <https://www.eparchyofpassaic.com/vocations>. Here you can find all the information on what they do and how you can support them in their ministry.

I think if we reflect on our past, many of us can say that we have heard a call to either encourage others around us or to consider this calling, but did not respond with action around it. The time is now to move to the Holy Spirit's promptings. Please be more aware and let's shift the momentum to strengthen our church.

Prayer to St Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
