Easter Sunday (Pascha)

Christ is Risen! Indeed He is Risen!

Pope Saint John Paul II once said "We are an Easter people." In context he was referring to our faith being one of deep, holy and hope-filled convictions. We celebrate and serve and surrender to a God who came down to us and lived a life as we live and suffered and died for us and then rose from the dead. No other religion in the world can boast in this. Only Christianity. More precisely, God left us with a church He built and feeds everyday with His own flesh and blood in the Catholic and Orthodox church. A reminder of His love for us. He also left us with the promise that He will always be with us. And a promise that if we follow Him, truly follow Him (which is not easy), that we will live with Him forever and ever.

As we move into our Easter season, which consists of the 40 days following the Resurrection, take this gladness into the world and at work and into your communities. Accept the challenge to bring the Good News of His resurrection to all you encounter. Not only in words but in action. Put other first in your life. Care for the elderly and weak in your communities. Take care of your Church and be active making it alive and strong. Leave a mark in His name wherever you may go.

This is the Catholic way and this is the intention of the church as a celebration of the Resurrection. In the Eastern Catholic church we call the week after Easter "Bright Week" for a reason. We are to be and are to be seen as the Light of Christ. Being bright and cheery in our life. But don't let it only be for the week, or even the 40 days following Easter. Let it become a habit to change your atmosphere around you. This atmosphere of joy is contagious and will spread within all your spheres of influence.

Christ is Risen! Indeed He is Risen!

Prayer to St Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

The Jesus Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ,
Son of the Living God,
Have mercy on me,
a sinner.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Heavenly King, Comforter, Spirit of Truth, everywhere present and filling all things, Treasury of blessings, and Giver of life, come and dwell within us, cleanse us of all stain, and save our souls, O Gracious One.
